of the Colonies), of the character, resources, habits, and occupations of the populations of each particular part, and are thus able to advise as to the best districts for the sale of any article, and also as to the best way of ext nding but in appointment of suitable Agents, and other means. The particulars and details also, which are required and obtained for the compilation of our "INDIAN AND COLONIAL MEACANTILE DIRECTORY," necessarily furnish us with the most valuable information for English merchants and manufacturers. Advertisers are thus guarded against the likelihood of being led away by statements made in the interest of some particular journal, and are enabled to adopt the best papers for their purpose.

CAUTION.

We would take this occasion to warn Advertisers against attractive estimates, quoting prices precluding the proper execution of the work, and hence involving the sacrifice of the Client's interests.

It should be borne in mind that a thoroughly mod medium of publicity is always worth a fair price, and count be obtained without it, thus inferior Journals are represented as important ones, and in cases where insertions have a today been made, the Intoney expended (for purposes of publicity) has been entirely lost.

In order to show that this caution is necessary, and as a specimen out of many cases referred to us, we annex a discharge for a debt with the confession which the parties were compelled to sign in order to avoid criminal proceedings.

LONDON.

We be the method the settlement of Eighteen Shillings and Ninepence in full settlement of all our claims and our unjust demand for Twenty Pounds, alleged to have been expended by us for Advertisements on behalf of Mr.

Welt hereby Confess that the statements contained in our Letters to the said Mr.

dated from

are false, and further, that the statements in question are a pure fabrication on our part. Should Mr.

or Mr. Street, find at any time that our false statements have proved injurious to either of them, we hereby authorise them to use this confession in any way that may be deemed necessary by either Mr.

or Mr. Street.

GOODS FOR ADVERTISEMENTS.

Whenever we have had the opportunity, we have earnestly cautioned our Advertising clients from entering upon any operations based upon taking out the expense in the article or in goods.

The charges for the Advertisements, in nearly every such case, are absurdly high when compared with the circulations, and the goods are disposed of at any prices the "dealers" can obtain.

The result of such transactions are subversive of prestige for the article, and destructive to fair market quetations, making Merchants and Shippers hesitate before issuing orders.

It has come to our knowledge that Advertisers have thus suffered seriously, and we think it only right to place before them the following Letter, received a short time since.

"Should you at any time take goods from your cus"tomers instead of eash payments, I should be happy to deal
"with you for those in my line of business at a serill re"tion from what I buy at. I deal in Patent Medi has,
"Perfumery, &c., &c., such as Packet Goods. If you
"entertain this proposition, I could furnish you with the "names of twenty or thirty articles which I could take any

LEGAL NOTICES.

Having been appointed Agents for the London Gazette, we have made arrangements to have all announcements properly transcribed on the authorised forms at the shortest notice, and copied for other home papers, and also to have them carefully translated into any language, when necessary, and inserted in any foreign or colonial journal, published in any part of the world.

In conclusion, we would respectfully invite especial attention to the subjoined selection from the numerous testimonials that we have had the gratification of receiving from Her Majesty's Commissioners, and other official authorities, in addition to those from large commercial firms, giving ample proof of the perfect satisfaction which our system commands.

DUBLIN INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, 1865.
EXHIBITION PALACE, DUBLIN,

27th January, 1866.

GENTLEMEN,

The business of the Exhibition having now ceased, I am desired by the Executive Committee to express their perfect satisfaction with the manner in which you fulfilled your Contracts with them.

In the collection of Advertisements for the Exhibition Catalogue, as well as in the management of our

xviii

Advertisements in the English and Scotch papers, the efficiency and regularity of your Establishment were most commendable; and as much of the work done passed under my observation, I feel pleasure in conveying to you the assurance of the good opinion of the Committee.

I am, Gentlemen,

Yours very faithfully,

C. E. BAGOT,

Sec. Executive Committee.

Messrs. Street Brothers.

Worcester, December 21st, 1865.

DEAR SIRS,

Mr. GEORGE STREET, of Cornhill, having informed us that he is wishful to obtain your orders for Advertising, we have much pleasure in recording our sense of the ability and other high qualifications displayed in the conduct of his business.

Our experience in Advertising is, you must be aware, very large; and we can assure you, that at no period have we obtained so good value for the money laid out as during the period Mr. Street has acted for us alone; whilst, through the admirable system adopted by Mr. S., the trouble of checking the advertisements is reduced to almost nothing.

Hoping that you would favour Mr. Street with a trial which, we are sure, you never would regret.

We remain, Dear Sirs,

Yours truly,

(Signed) LEA & PERRINS.

21, Sono Square, London, 21st November, 1865.

DEAR SIRS,

We have the pleasure to introduce Mr. G. STREET, who has for many years managed our Advertising to our satisfaction; and if you are making any change, we are sure you could not do better than employ him.

We are, yours truly,

(Signed)

CROSSE & BLACKWELL.

TESTIMONIALS-CONTINUED.

London, November 28th, 1867.

DEAR SIRS,

We experience great pleasure in testifying our high opinion of Messrs. Street Brothers' thorough competence with management of Advertising.

We have for many years entrusted our business (which has been of an exceedingly varied and extensive character) to them, and in justice must admit their arrangements to be admirable, both as regards the complete and effective mode of attracting general attention, combined with a due regard for economy and a perfect system of checking, which assures, in every instance, due publicity to each advertisement.

We may also add, that not only has the conducting of our Advertising proved entirely satisfactory to us, but the result compared most favourably, in a pecuniary sense, with what we paid previous to our arrangement with them.

We therefore confidently recommend Messrs. STITEET as deserving a trial, which would, we feel certain, ensure them a permanent addition to the large amount of patronage they already enjoy.

We remain, Dear Sirs, yours faithfully,

(Signed) J. DEFRIES & SONS.

Paraffine Candle Works, Lambeth, London, 1st November, 1867.

DEAR SIR,

We have much pleasure in introducing Messrs. Street Brothers to your notice.

As you are aware, we have advertised rather extensively lately, and these gentlemen have for the past three years entirely conducted this business for us. We have had every reason to be satisfied with the arrangement, not only in regard of the correctness and promptitude always experienced, but from the great saving effected in comparison with what we paid formerly when treating with publishers direct.

We are, yours truly,

(Signed) J. C. & J. FIELD.

172, New Bond Street, London, W.,

October 3rd, 1867.

Mr. George Street, of 30, Cornhill, has had the management of our Advertising business for the last three years, and has conducted it to our entire satisfaction.

We find his prices in no case higher than we used to pay ourselves, and, in a large number of papers, they are considerably less than we had paid for many years, whilst his very methodical system of checking renders the appearance of every advertisement in due course a matter of certainty.

We can confidently recommend him as worthy of the trust so many large advertisers place in him.

(Signed) DINNEFORD & Co.

16, COLEMAN STREET, LONDON,

20th, November, 1865.

DEAR SIRS.

We have much pleasure in introducing Mr. G. STREET to you. He has for some years, entirely managed our Advertising, and has done so very much to our satisfaction. If you should ever require an agent, we do not think you could find a gentleman who would more thoroughly look after your interests.

We are, Dear Sirs,

Yours truly,

GENTLEMEN,

If you should place your Advertising in the hands of Messrs. Street, I can bear testimony to their carefulness, not only in work, but prices, having, until I knew them, attended, like others of their customers, to my own Advertising.

Yours very truly,

GEORGE BORWICK.

143, New Bond Street, London, W.,

November 6th, 1871.

DEAR SIRS,

We have much pleasure in testifying to the zeal and ability with which you have conducted our advertising business for the past two years. We have always found you most anxious to carry out all our suggestions, and very correct in your statements of advertisements which have
